

41.03.05 – International Relations

Duration

Intramural: 4 years

Number of state-funded places in 2020-2021 academic year: 9

Tuition fee in 2020-2021 academic year: RUB 145,000

Advantages

- Exchange education at partner universities abroad
- Internships at top international institutions in Nizhny Novgorod and the region
- Participation in large-scale international projects
- Studies in a multicultural and multinational environment at LUNN

Subjects

- History of International Relations
- Theory of International Relations
- Global Economics
- Political Science
- International Security
- 1st Foreign Language Course (English)
- 2nd Foreign Language Course (German/French/Spanish)

Career opportunities

- Member of staff at the institutions of the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- International departments of the local authorities and government agencies
- International department expert at business companies and NGOs
- International journalist with global media agencies
- Member of staff at international publishing houses
- Expert in organizing international culture exchange programs
- Analyst and researcher at scientific and educational organizations

Entrance exams

- Foreign Language
- Russian
- History