

45.03.02 – Linguistics

BA Program: Translation, Interpreting and Translation Studies (English)

Duration

Intramural: 4 years

Number of state-funded places in 2020-2021 academic year: 5

Tuition fee in 2019-2020 academic year: RUB 133,000

Program features

- Meets current job market demands; has a close collaboration with prospective employers – representatives of translation agencies and departments within big organizations and businesses, international organizations, e.g. the UN and its agencies;
- Provides training in technical, economic and commercial types of specialized translation which are currently much sought after (School of Interpreting at LUNN has been training students in these subjects from its foundation);
- Provides opportunities for internships at the best translation agencies of Nizhny Novgorod, Moscow and Saint-Petersburg (work with prospective employers);
- Provides training in modern information technology services for translation;
- Offers opportunities to participate in large-scale translation forums (e.g. those held by the Union of Translators of Russia), to develop translation and interpreting skills at Translation Winter and Summer Schools of the UTR, to take part in all-Russian and international translation competitions.

Subjects

- Practical Courses of 1st and 2nd Foreign Language
- Practical Course in the Culture of Verbal Communication (1st and 2nd Foreign Languages)
- General Theory of Translation
- Specialized Translation (1st and 2nd Foreign Languages)
- Commercial Translation (1st and 2nd Foreign Languages)
- Interpreting (1st and 2nd Foreign Languages)

Career opportunities

Our alumni work at:

- the best translation agencies of Nizhny Novgorod, Moscow, Saint-Petersburg and other cities of Russia;
- top Russian and international companies;
- the municipal and regional administration;
- companies in GR, tourism and business.

Entrance exams

- Foreign language
- Russian
- Literature