

45.05.01 – Translation and Translation Studies

Specialty (French) – classical 5 years diploma program before Bologna

Duration

Intramural: 5 years

Number of state-funded places in 2020-2021 academic year: 2

Tuition fee in 2019-2020 academic year: RUB 129,000

Advantages

- A market oriented program, carried out in close cooperation with employers – translation companies, translation departments of large organizations and enterprises, international organizations such as the UN and its agencies
- Special emphasis on demanded types of special translation and interpreting: technical, economic, commercial, which have been taught at the School of translation and interpreting since its foundation.
- Internship at the best translation companies of Nizhny Novgorod, Moscow, Saint-Petersburg to build up contacts to potential employers
- Learning to use modern information technologies in translation (search systems, translation memory).
- Participation at large professional forums, i.e. those of Union of Translators of Russia to learn real conditions of modern translation and interpreting activities, mastering skills at Winter and Summer Schools of the UTR, participation in large all-Russian translation and interpreting competitions.

Core subjects

- Practical Courses of the First and the Second Foreign Language
- Advanced Practical Course of the First and the Second Foreign Language
- Translation Theory
- Practical Course of Translation (the First and the Second Foreign Language)
- Interpreting at International Conferences

Career opportunities

Organizations, enterprises, translation companies, freelance.

Translator and editor at the UN, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia, in large Russian and international companies such as Volkswagen, Russian Atomic Agency, "Orgkhim", translation companies Alba, IB Translations, Yanus Worldwide, international departments of the Government of Nizhny Novgorod region. Freelancers intensively work as translators and interpreters all over the world. Continuation of education in Belgium, France, Switzerland or other countries is one more career opportunity.

Entrance exams

- Russian
 - Foreign language
- Literature