

Admissions Campaign 2021:
Bachelor's, specialist's, and master's degree programs for foreign students

General Information

Foreign residents that have completed secondary general education, secondary vocational education, or higher education are invited to enroll with bachelor's and specialist's degree programs at LUNN. Foreign residents that have completed higher education are also invited to enroll with master's degree programs at LUNN.

Students are enrolled in the first year.

Foreign residents are enrolled either on a budgetary basis (state-subsidized openings) or on a self-funding basis (fee-paying basis).

The following individuals are entitled to state-subsidized openings:

1. foreign residents that are compatriots (or descendants of compatriots) living abroad;
2. foreign residents entering LUNN under the quota system provided by the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation for foreign residents. Additional information on entering Russian universities under the quota system for foreign residents is available at representative offices of the Federal Agency for the Commonwealth of Independent States, Compatriots Living Abroad, and International Humanitarian Cooperation (Rossotrudnichestvo) or on their official website: www.rs.gov.ru.

In order to enroll with LUNN on a self-funding basis, foreign residents shall submit a request for admission to the LUNN Admissions Office within the prescribed time limits, provide all the necessary documents, take entrance exams, and conclude an agreement for paid educational services.

Documents

1. Passport.
2. Copy of a passport and its translation into Russian certified by a Russian notary.
3. Credentials and an appendix thereto (if any). These documents shall be legalized (consular legalization or apostilization).

In some cases, legalization of credentials is not required. No legalization is required for credentials issued by the Member States to the Convention on Legal Assistance and Legal Relations in Civil, Family and Criminal Matters (signed in Minsk on January 22, 1993), as well as by some other countries that have bilateral agreements on legal assistance with Russia. For more info on these countries please contact the Main State Center for Education Evaluation (at www.nic.gov.ru or by phone +7 (495) 317-17-10).

Simplified legalization (apostilization) applies to the Member States of the Convention, which abolishes mandatory legalization of foreign official documents required since October 5, 1961 under the 1961 Hague Convention. For more info on these countries please contact the Main State Center for Education Evaluation (at www.nic.gov.ru or by phone +7 (495) 317-17-10).

4. Copy of credentials and their translation into Russian certified by a Russian notary.
5. Certificate of Foreign Education Recognition. No Certificate of Recognition is required for credentials issued in the countries that have bilateral and multilateral agreements on mutual recognition of credentials. For more info on these countries please contact the Main State Center for Education Evaluation (at www.nic.gov.ru or by phone +7 (495) 317-17-10).
6. Copy of a migration card; copy of a visa when entering the Russian Federation.
7. Medical certificate confirming that there are no medical contraindications to studying in Russia, chest X-ray certificate.
8. Certificate stating a HIV negative status.
9. 6 photos (3x4 cm).

Entrance exams

1. For a foreign resident to be enrolled with a bachelor's or specialist's degree program on a self-funding basis (fee-paying basis), the following entrance exams are required:

- foreign language
- Russian language.

Foreign residents shall take entrance exams in English, German, or French depending on the field of study (major). An entrance exam in a foreign language is both written (lexical - grammatical test) and oral (picture description test).

An entrance exam in Russian is either a dictation, a test, or TORFL/TRKI (Test of Russian as a Foreign Language). TORFL-I confirmed by the First Level Certificate or certificates of higher levels presented by an enrollee shall replace an entrance exam in Russian.

2. For a foreign resident to be enrolled with a master's degree program, an entrance exam shall be taken from a list of entrance exams set by LUNN.
